Everybody Sleeps!

The Nap Nanny is a groundbreaking new product designed by a mother to improve infant sleep. Parents often turn to a wedge to elevate their baby in an effort to get them to sleep but babies often roll off the wedge. Now there's a better choice! The Nap Nanny advantage: increased infant comfort. Nap Nanny elevates baby 30 degrees, which is recommended by doctors for babies with reflux, colic, colds or stuffiness, gas and ear infections. Boo!

I took my dog Boo, a puppy of 4 months to our Vet in Skokie. Boo and I were waiting in the examining room, when a doctor came in and said, "I thought I recognized you. You're Mark from Lazar's. We bought a stroller and some other stuff from you." We chatted for a few moments about Boo, business and his young family. It was good seeing someone I knew at the Vet that I have been taking my animals to for years. He buys a stroller from me, Boo gets his shots from him. Everybody's happy . . . except [\[read more\]](#)

Someone You Should Know

Even though David spends much of his day making sure our warehouse is neat, clean and orderly, he manages to make customer service a priority, making sure your furniture order is ready for delivery, repairing strollers and offering instruction on how to convert a crib to a toddler bed. And he's been doing it for Lazar's customers for over 30 years. Need some air in your Bugaboo or BOB stroller?

Bring it on in and David will help you out!

R U Happy?

Last night, I was brushing my 3-year-old daughter's teeth when she pushed my hand away and asked "Papa, are you happy?" My first thought was that she was channeling my grandmother since that was her favorite question to ask. And then I thought that maybe my daughter was offering up some insight. Possibly reflecting what she was seeing in me that evening . . . it was getting late, there were still a number of things to do to get her ready for bed, and all I wanted to do was collapse on the couch and relax. So, I slowed down. I decided to make a point of being aware of every task that evening, including the mundane ones, and even suggesting to myself that I should enjoy them. I'm so fortunate to be the father of this little girl, it really is my honor to brush her teeth, comb her hair, read her a book . . . and tolerate the 3-year-old temper tantrums. Take from my experience, and my daughter's insight, what you will.

Hope you are having a happy summer,
